

Bow to Stern Sailing School Counselor in Training (CIT) Program Application

The CIT program is a leadership development program designed to enrich your life skills. Opportunities for growth begin with the application, you should complete the form(s) with little or no assistance. The interview will be the next experience in the process. You will be expected to participate in a phone interview that you help to schedule. The completed application and interview experience will be reviewed and critiqued during the course of the program.
