

Attached is a map showing the Atlas Tract (in red) and its location relative to all of the headwaters it protects as a watershed. This 4,658 acre tract is equal to 10% of all the farmland that is in Pamlico County.