FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

State Group Awards Library Trustee

Bayboro – The N. C. Public Library Directors Association has named Ben Bowditch Library Trustee of the Year at its annual Awards Banquet in Winston-Salem on December 8th.

Mr. Bowditch is Chairman of the Craven-Pamlico-Carteret Regional Library Board of Trustees, and also serves on the Pamlico County Public Library Board. He is retired from a business career focused on retirement plans and local government short-term investments.

According to Susan Simpson, Regional Library Director, “Our library system has never had such an involved and motivated Board member. His dedication has resulted in new initiatives and benefits to the communities and patrons we serve, and our employees. He believes strongly in the importance of what the regional library system does for the public and small libraries. We are fortunate to have someone who cares so much about making our libraries the best they can be.”
