

Support the Community Labyrinth

The Community Labyrinth at South Avenue and Freemason Street has become an integral part of Oriental since its opening in 2019 -- a place where we can go for peace, introspection or even yoga. But after more than five years of existence, many feet have walked to its center and back. The labyrinth has been exposed to sun, rain and hurricanes. The Community Labyrinth is in need of restoration to bring it back to its original appearance.

You can support the maintenance of this beautiful Oriental landmark in several ways. Oriental United Methodist Church is selling lovely watercolor prints of the labyrinth, generously donated by well-known local artist Lynn Hines, for $30. Each is matted and measures 8 by 10 inches. Just stop by the church office from 9:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. Monday through Thursday to purchase one. Also, a donation to the maintenance of the labyrinth can be made by mailing a check to OUMC at P.O. Box 70, Oriental, NC 28571. Be sure to note "Labyrinth Donation" in the subject line.

And, lastly, you can volunteer on the committee that oversees and maintains the labyrinth. OUMC created the labyrinth as a gift to our village, and it truly is a resource for the entire community – we would welcome anyone who loves the labyrinth, gardening and grounds maintenance to join us. Just call or text committee chair Lynn Rockwell at 252-670-1892.
